Home Projects Before Winter Sets In

As the days get shorter and temperatures start to drop, fall is the perfect time to tackle those home projects that prepare your house for the cold months ahead. A little preparation now can save you money, protect your investment, and keep your family comfortable all winter long.

Here are a few helpful reminders for fall home maintenance:

- Check your heating system. Schedule a furnace tune-up to make sure your system is running efficiently before you need it every day.
- Seal drafts. Inspect windows and doors for leaks and replace weatherstripping or add insulation where needed.
- Clean gutters. Clear out leaves and debris so melting snow and ice can flow freely, preventing water damage.
- Inspect your roof. Look for missing shingles or damage that could lead to leaks during snowstorms.
- Outdoor prep. Drain and store garden hoses, shut off outdoor faucets, and cover patio furniture.

Sometimes these projects are simple weekend chores, but other times, bigger upgrades—like replacing a furnace, installing energy-efficient windows, or repairing a roof—require more planning and financial support.

That's where a Home Equity Loan or (REAP) Home Equity Line of Credit from Arcadia Credit Union can help. By borrowing against the equity in your home, you can fund larger improvements with affordable rates and flexible terms. Not only can these updates make your home more comfortable, but they may also increase its value in the long run. So, as you check off your fall to-do list, remember we're here to help you finance those bigger projects. Stop by our office, give us a call, or visit our website, www.arcadiacu.com to learn more about how a Home Equity Loan or Line of Credit can make your home winter ready! All home equity loans are subject to credit approval.
